Diamond solitaire earrings can be set in yellow gold, white gold, or sterling silver, among a few others. Deciding which color setting you pick, may not be as important to you as others. Some women like for all of their jewelry to match. For example, if most of your jewelry is set in yellow gold, you may want to purchase your diamond solitaire earrings, set in yellow gold as well, and vice versa. This way when wearing your other jewelry set in yellow gold, your diamond solitaire earrings, will match beautifully. Although, most women do have a nice selection of jewelry, and have stones set in all colors available. Then the decision would be, which collection, to add your diamond solitaire earrings to.

The size, of which diamond solitaire earrings to purchase, may also play a factor in your decision. A rule of thumb to remember when purchasing diamonds, is the larger the diamond the higher the price. This is simply because diamonds are sold by weight, so the diamond that weighs more would also cost more.

Diamond solitaire earrings are a great piece of jewelry to add to any wardrobe. They can be worn with any outfit, and to any occasion. Wether you are going to the office or a night out on the town, your diamond solitaire earrings will look stunning on you.
